

JOSEPHINE BAKER

INTERNATIONAL CABARET
SUPERSTAR AND
CIVIL RIGHTS
ACTIVIST,
B. 1906, D. 1975

"Legendary. Provocative. Iconic. To me, she was the first international black diva. So much can be traced back to her and her banana dance—in the 1920s, she was twerking! She managed to be sexy and political at the same time."

BRA, New York Vintage Inc. BANANA SKIRT, Augusto Manzanares. SANDALS, Shoesissima. EARRINGS, NECKLACE, CUFFS, Miriam Haskell. PEARL ANKLETS, Claire's

